

EVERETT KEENER BADLY INJURED

Was So Crushed in Accident
It Had to be Amputated Yesterday.

Everett Keener, of Lincoln street, was so seriously injured at the Owens Bottle plant yesterday when his right arm was crushed in some machinery that it was necessary to amputate the member which was done at the Fairmont state hospital. His arm was mangled almost to a pulp before the machinery could be stopped and his arm released. Keener was married about a week ago to Katherine Vincent. He was a promising ball player also. The man displayed remarkable nerve and after the accident walked unaided to the office of the plant where he told how the accident occurred and his steps to the office could be traced by blood which dripped from his arm.

EASY TO GET

one end of the state to the other. He advocated "back to the Constitution," and "an old fashioned Americanism." He took no middle ground nor tried any pussyfooting. He made his unqualified stand on every issue unqualifiedly clear to the voters.

(2) The Johnson victory was a blow to the candidacies of General Leonard Wood and to Governor Lowden. It put an effective stop, it is thought, for the time being, at least, to the early onward sweep of the Wood candidacy, and it likely spelled the final to the candidacy of Lowden, unless the latter is able to carry his own state of Illinois over Wood and Johnson, thereby stalling off an utter collapse that is not beyond a probability as a result of the adverse Michigan vote. It is more than likely to adversely affect the chances of Wood in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

(3) The standing of Senator Harding, who although not a candidate in the Michigan primary, is thought to be greatly enhanced by Johnson's victory. It is figured that it will help him in Ohio, where he is opposed by Wood, and to point to an uncertain and deadlocked situation at Chicago which will call for a "dark horse," and the "dark horse" line of strategy is one that Senator Harding is supposed to be following. He is staying out of primaries generally, letting the others do the fighting, and his friends, and many of the smartest politicians in the country, think playing the smartest kind of a game. In Washington, there is a widespread opinion, which has been gaining for some time, that Senator Harding is "their ace in the hole" that the leading Republican Senators and their organizations, such as Penrose and his Pennsylvania machine, for instance, have.

THERE ARE OTHER CAMPAIGN ISSUES.

(4) The Michigan vote disposes of Hoover as a serious factor for the Republicans so far as their convention is concerned, but may give the old line Democrats something to worry over, and furnish the San Francisco convention the material for the one desperate chance it is expected by many to take. Michigan proves it is argued, that Johnson will beat Hoover in California which will put the "candidate running on all tickets" out of the running on the Republican track.

(5) The Michigan verdict will affect legislation in Washington in a most vital way. It will so affect the peace treaty controversy. It will affect the new military legislation. It will have a direct bearing on the pigeon-hole treaty with France.

These are but five selected points (which could as easily have been made fourteen, but for an abhorrence of imitating) in epitomizing what is thought to be the most pronounced sentiments held in Washington on the outcome in Michigan.

Senator Johnson had all the advantages in Michigan except organization. Here were his advantages:

He had campaigned that state thoroughly in 1912, when he was the Bull Moose candidate for vice president on the ticket with the Colonel. The Colonel was the idol of Michigan; still is, for that matter. He carried it by a great majority over both Wilson and Taft. Johnson was the Colonel's friend and running mate. Michigan Republicans knew him and liked him. They liked his speeches immensely.

Michigan in its industrial centers, is radical. Detroit, take a recent report of the Department of Justice for it, is the most radical city in the United States. Senator Johnson's reputation as governor of California and as Bull Moose candidate (his reputation in the years when today's conservative in the eyes of many was a red hot radical) was that of being a radical. There is little however, in his record as a Senator to uphold his prior radical reputation. He has stood for "the policies of our forefathers." He has advocated "back to the Constitution and George Washington." He has preached "getting back to old fashioned Americanism." He has consistently and aggressively opposed the international policies of the Wilson Administration, and fought the Wilson treaty with or without reservations. He threw down the gauntlet not only once but many times to union labor as represented by the Plum Planners, the Posters in the steel strike, and the schemers for the nationalization of the coal mines. Strange, isn't it, that this so-called radical of a few years ago, is shown up by his record as a Senator to be anything else but radical? And yet, the vote in Detroit is sufficient to prove that he was enthusiastically accepted by the radicals, however their more conservative brethren may have voted on him.

Another advantage that he enjoyed in Michigan was his continued advocacy on floor of the Senate of returning the American soldiers in Siberia to their homes. He introduced resolutions and made demands. He is given credit in Michigan for forcing the Administration to reluctantly withdraw these troops. There were several thousand Michigan boys regimented in the Siberian army of the United States. It was a "live" question in that state for many months. Delegations of the parents of these boys came to Washington from time to time. Senator Johnson was their spokesman. He has a similar claim on many families in Illinois, too, is pointed out here.

While Johnson is now to be "reckoned with seriously," few politicians of any high standing as experts in Washington go so far as to say that they believe that Johnson will be the nominee of the Chicago convention. On the contrary, a large majority will tell you that they cannot bring themselves to believe that Johnson will be the nominee. They have many reasons to give. Nor do they think that Wood or Lowden will be. But a good many do think that Harding may be, and a large number, at this particular juncture, express the opinion that the history of the Garfield and Seymour conventions is about to be repeated at Chicago and that a "dark horse" will gallop under the blind luck to buy his name in the party-mutuals. In this sable-hued equine line of talk of the present hour, General John J. Pershing's name looms up like that of a movie star in the front of a Broadway theatre. Then there are the names of Knox, Lodge, Sutherland, Coolidge, Allen. Opinion in the Capital has now settled back where it once was before Wood picked up a bunch of delegates from here and there and South Dakota to the effect that Chicago convention is to be a free-for-all, and that when the convention meets, the presidential nomination will be as unsettled as Russia, Mexico or who the grape juice is on before the dice are shaken from the little magic box. Michigan again is responsible for it.

FARMINGTON

Downs-Williams.
Announcement has been received by family, of the marriage of Mr. Hugh M. Downs, formerly of Farmington, W. Va. The following was taken from a St. Louis paper:
"Miss Reba Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams, Jr., 11404 Aubert avenue, St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. Hugh M. Downs, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Downs, of Fairmont, W. Va., were married Wednesday, March 31, at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Hubert, of Kings Highway Presbyterian church, of St. Louis. Mrs. Downs, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, was formerly of California. She has resided in St. Louis for some time. The happy couple are living at present at the Washington Hotel."

Sick.
Mrs. C. E. Fletcher is reported very sick at her home here. Her sister, Mrs. Blanche Baker, of Weston, is nursing her.

Attended Funeral.
Mr. and Mrs. Press Freeland attended the funeral of Miss Ethel Freeland at Pine Grove Thursday.

Improving.
Mrs. John Matthews, who has been dangerously ill at her home here, is improving rapidly at this time.

Illustrated Lecture.
County Health Officer Dr. L. N. Yost, of Fairmont, gave an illustrated lecture in the high school auditorium on School Hygiene Thursday night. He said that the children of today had a harder fight to be strong than their parents. Miss Winfield, the county nurse, would come here most any time and tell the parents how to keep the children in good physical condition. Miss Blair, county demonstrating agent, the second speaker of the evening, took a measurement of the children of the graded school here last Friday. Of the 141 measured, 41 were found to be normal. About six were above normal, 32 were 10 per cent. below normal and the rest were still below that. This shows that the health of the school children should be looked after more than it is. Dr. Hoes, the last speaker, gave a very interesting talk on "Teeth." He said "Keep your teeth clean and you won't have to come to the dentist and have him use his grind organ in your mouth." A small crowd was in attendance.

Measurement by Light Rays.
The most delicate measuring possible, accurate within millionths of an inch, is done by means of light rays.

ANTI-FAT

Art thou stout and getting stouter? Stop repining—cease to moan; Hie thee to the nearest drug store—Ask for "Tablets Arborene."

Arborene will stop that craving. Make thee normal—that's well known. Thou'lt forget that hungry feeling After taking Arborene.

And the pounds away will dwindle—Waist no longer like a zone; Thou'lt be thankful to the maker Of those Tablets Arborene.

Note.—This little poem was written by a literary woman of Los Angeles, Calif., as a testimonial to Tablets Arborene. It is aptly and truthfully describes the virtues of this well-known anti-fat that the proprietors use it for advertising. Facts and gratitude are both expressed with admirable rhythm and metre.

SELF SERVE
Nu Wa
GROCERY CO.
BEST IN TOWN
107 Fairmont Ave.

Fresh eggs were selling for 60c all over town when the Nu Wa opened for business last Thursday and the public was most agreeably astonished when like a bolt from the clear sky the shopping news was heralded broad cast that the Nu Wa was selling fresh Country Eggs at 49c. This store made a big slash in the price of the 15c loaf of bread by dropping it to 12c per loaf. But, bread and eggs are not the only article on which the price has been greatly lowered. Look over this extensive list and compare the prices with those you have been paying and you will see that a self serving cash and no delivery store is the only solution for partial relief from the high cost of living. This store has no clerks to pay, no automobile driver to add to the cost of doing business and no bad accounts to make good on prices you pay as no goods are sold on credit. It will pay any person buying on the credit plan to borrow the money from the bank at 6 per cent and save from 10 to 30 per cent on his grocery bills every month. The saving would pay the small interest costs many times over—go over this list and then come to the Nu Wa and see that it is all true as represented in this advertisement.

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD OR THAT OF SOMEONE HUNDREDS OF MILES AWAY; HERE IS WHAT YOUR NEIGHBORS IN NEARBY CITIES SAY ABOUT

The Reese Formula R-11

The Great Stomach, Liver and Kidney Tonic.

W. J. McGuire,
Huntington, W. Va.

Dear Sir:

The bottle of Reese Formula R-11 which I purchased from your store has completely restored my health. I have suffered from dizzy spells caused by my stomach and liver for more than a year, until I took the Reese Formula R-11, nothing seemed to give me relief. Certainly wish I had heard of it sooner, for I would have been saved both time and money. I am always going to keep a bottle of it in the house. With many thanks, I am,

Very truly,
N. L. BUCK,
717 8th Avenue,
Huntington, W. Va.

The Reese Formula Co.,
Huntington, W. Va.

Gentlemen:
I have suffered from stomach trouble for years and have taken many remedies without success, but when I saw your advertisement guaranteeing relief with the first bottle or money refunded, I got a bottle from the Harlan and Bates drug store. The FIRST DOSE gave me relief, and although I have not finished the first bottle, I feel wonderful. My husband who is 73 years old and has suffered greatly from rheumatism for years, is also taking Reese Formula and it is doing him worlds of good. I am positive that a few bottles will completely restore him.

Yours faithfully,
MRS. S. C. BLAKE,
440 1/2 Fifth Avenue,
Huntington, W. Va.

The Reese Formula Co.,
Huntington, W. Va.

Gentlemen:

I have had serious trouble with my stomach and bowels for more than one year, was hardly able to get around, when a friend recommended the Reese Formula R-11 to me. After taking only a half bottle, my trouble has completely disappeared. I would heartily recommend this remedy to anyone with stomach, liver and kidney trouble.

Yours truly,
VERNON E. WALKER,
720 Fourth Avenue,
Huntington, W. Va.

McGuire Drug Store,
Huntington, W. Va.

Gentlemen:

I have suffered from stomach, liver and kidney trouble for years and have doctored without results, until I started taking the Reese Formula R-11 last week. I have taken one bottle and am feeling so fine I can hardly realize I am the same fellow. When I awoke in the morning now I feel like going to work. I can rest at night and my system is toned up so I can eat anything. Before I started taking the Reese Formula R-11 I was nervous, suffered with my stomach after every meal and would awake in the morning as tired and worn out as if I had not been in bed. I can not tell you how thankful I am for the good this medicine has done me. If every one suffering from stomach trouble could be made to realize what a great remedy the Reese Formula is, it would be a great blessing to humanity.

Yours faithfully,
C. C. JOHNSON,
926 1/2 7th Ave.,
Huntington, W. Va.

Ball-Warfield Drug Co.,
Ironton, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

I have suffered for a long time from what seemed to be a lump in my stomach. I was bilious, nervous and couldn't sleep at night. I tried about everything on the market without relief. I was told about the Reese Formula R-11, and secured a bottle, and although I have not finished taking the first bottle, my stomach is in fine shape. I never felt better in my life and have slept like a top the last three nights. Something I haven't done for months. I am recommending the Reese Formula to all my friends. It is positively the greatest stomach, liver and kidney remedy. It can't be beaten. I heartily recommend it to everyone.

Yours truly,
FRANK SCHAFER,
N. Second Street,
Ironton, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

I have been doctoring for over six years for stomach trouble. Six doctors in Ironton and four in Portsmouth did not help me a bit. I have taken all sorts of remedies without benefit until I began taking the Reese Formula R-11. I have taken but one bottle, but my stomach does not trouble me at all, and I feel stronger in every respect. I am going to take another bottle, although I feel that I am entirely well now. I most heartily recommend this remedy, as it has by relieving me done something that I did not think possible.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES M. LONG,
Ironton, Ohio.
